Mr. Perez,

Some years ago I was with a broker at Merrill Lynch and left in dissatisfaction because of poor choices he had urged me to make. Later I learned that he was pushing what ML urged on its brokers! It was not in my best interest and I lost funds because of it. I admit that I am not as well educated or informed as I needed to be, but I thought he had my best interests in mind. I do urge passage of the change the Obama administration is advocating for.

Thank you.
